THE

MAPLE

LEAVES

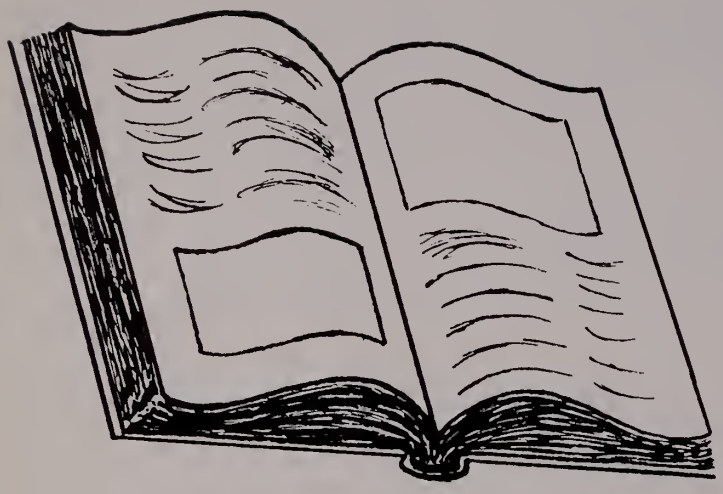
AS

PRESENTED BY

THE

1966 ANNUAL STAFF

Foreword



Many personalities pass through the halls of Dublin High. Their lives are valued, no matter what their differences. They work to learn; they play to relax. These personalities plan and study, laugh and remember.

Their contributions are great, though varied. Through this variety runs a sharing, a thread which weaves a pattern of loyalty to, and pride in, Dublin High School.

With pride and respect, we, the Annual Staff of Dublin High School, present to you, the students who weave the pattern, THE THREAD THAT RUNS SO TRUE -- Maple Leaves, 1966.

With Respect and Grateful Thanks . . .

the Annual Staff and students of Dublin High School dedicate the 1966 MAPLE LEAVES to MRS. RUTH ALICE SLOOP.

The challenge of science is the challenge of tomorrow. Mrs. Sloop gives unselfishly of her time and energy so that the students of Dublin might be made aware of the world around them.

The choruses, directed by Mrs. Kent Cecil, participate in several activities throughout the year. Their beautiful songs are heard during various assemblies including those of the Beta Club, Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter. The Senior Chorus also provides music for the baccalaureate service and for graduation exercises. The highlight of the year is the Spring Concert, which is presented in May.

Dublin Duke

The season opened for the Duke Band with a summer camp at Concord College. With the beginning of school came the concert for the teachers and the football games. In addition to supporting the team, the band attended Band Day at V.P.I., participated in the Shrine Game at Roanoke, and received straight 1 ratings at the Southeastern Band Festival in Bristol.

Band

December brought Christmas with its assembly and two first place trophies for Christmas parades. Eighteen members of the band made all-state at Lynchburg. The Virginia Lions invited the Duke Band to represent them at the National Convention at New York. With the District Festival at Cave Springs, All Virginia Band at Charlottesville, and the spring concert, it has been a full year for one of Dublin's top bands.

It was with perfect forms such as these that made our track team undefeated last year. We, the members of the MAPLE LEAVES staff, would like to congratulate Coach Lindstrom and the team for their fine effort, and would like to wish the teams of the future the very best of luck in this growing high school sport.
